

The project is financed by the International Visegrad Fund

Conference

Budapest, 05 March 2015.

Improving the employability of young people through dual vocational training

Draft programme

Wednesday 04. March 2015.

- 15.00-17.30 Delegations arrive at Hotel Benczúr
- 18.00-19.30 Preparation workshop with the participation of the Polish, Czech, Slovak and Hungarian presidents, delegation members
- Venue: Hotel Benczúr

Conference Day, Thursday, 05. March 2015.

- 9.30-10.00 Registration of participants
- 10.00-10.10 Welcoming address
László Németh, President, IPOSZ
- 10.10-12.30 Section I. – Role and situation of dual vocational training in V4 countries – from the point of view of SMEs
Moderation: László Németh, President, IPOSZ
- 10.10-11.10 Country examples: Poland and Czech Republic
- Andrzej Stepnikovski, Deputy Director for Vocational Training and Social Policy, ZRP
- Jakub Skába, Project Manager, AMSP
- 11.10-11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30-12.30 Country examples: Slovakia and Hungary
- Viola Kromerová, Secretary General, SZZ
- Gábor Solti, Director for Vocational Training and International Affairs, IPOSZ
- 12.30-13.30 Lunch
- 13.30-15.00 Section II. – Possibilities in the V4 economic area – dual training in Hungary from the perspective of the ministries,

The project is financed by the International Visegrad Fund

chambers and relevant authorities. Best practices in the field of improving the employability of young people

Moderation: László Németh President, IPOSZ

- Tibor Kecskés, tbc. Head of Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade:

Importance of the V4 economic area. Chances for the exchange of young skill workers.

- József Palotás, Commissioned Deputy Director-General, National Institution of Vocational and Adult Training:

The legal background of dual training

- János Szilágyi, Director for Education and Training, Hungarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry:
The point of view and experiences of the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry in the field of dual vocational training

- Ágnes Balla, Team Leader, Tempus Public Foundation:
Financing tools of the EU to support international exchange and gaining experiences of young trainees

15.00-15.15

Coffee break

15.15-16.30

Round table meeting

Moderator: Gábor Solti, Director, IPOSZ

Comparing the Hungarian situation with that of the other V4 countries from the point of view of

- territorial craftsmen's corporations,
- professional craftsmen's corporations, and
- vocational schools.

Conclusions summarized by the moderator

Friday, 06 March 2015.

09.00-10.30

Follow-up workshop with the participation of the Polish, Czech, Slovak and Hungarian presidents, delegation members

Venue: Hotel Benczúr

10.30-

Departure of the delegations